

Harper Brown Keeler Jr.
2230 Floral Hill Drive
Eugene, Or 97403
(503) 484-2760
hkeeler@uoregon.edu

Educational Background

Master of Landscape Architecture University of Oregon 2011
Concentrations: Place-based education in the context of Landscape Architecture, Edible Landscapes, Civic Agriculture, Food Studies

Bachelor of Landscape Architecture University of Oregon 1995

Bronx Botanical Gardens, New York

Academic Experience

University of Oregon, Department of Landscape Architecture

Urban Farm Program Director	2008 - present
Adjunct Instructor	2001 - 2007
Graduate Teaching Fellow	2009 – 2011

- The Urban Farm Program centers on the introduction and education of issues relating to Sustainable Agricultural Practices including Bio-Dynamics, Bio-Intensive Farming, Community Supported Agriculture, Food Justice, Herbal Medicine, Plant and Soil Science, Plant Morphology, Protection of Heirloom Plant Varietals and Social Justice.

Other work includes serving on the University of Oregon Food Studies Working Group and co-founding of the University of Oregon Edible Campus Initiative.

Courses: The Urban Farm, Civic Agriculture, Land Systems Analysis

Local Community Work

Willamette Farm and Food Coalition
Board President	2012 - present
Board Vice President	2008-2012
• 501c-3 Non-Profit Organization focusing on local food systems, food security and sustainable agricultural practice.

WFFC Farm to School Program
Steering Committee Member

School Garden Project of Lane County Volunteer Educator	1998 - present
--	----------------

- Non-profit group dedicated to the design, development and implementation of garden programs in local primary schools.