

Noah Guadagni

1765 E. 43rd Ave
Eugene, OR 97405
noah.guadagni@gmail.com
541.914.9240

Education

- 2015 Master of Landscape Architecture
University of Oregon (Eugene, OR, USA)
Thesis: "10 Principles & 36 Strategies of PNW Landscape Design"
- 2010 Bachelor of Science: Global Resource Systems
University of British Columbia (Vancouver, BC, Canada)

Recent Teaching Experience

- 2016 Pacific Northwest Design Strategies
Lane Community College, Continuing Education Winter Term
Landscape design course covering plants, materials, spatial arrangements, history, and symbols of the PNW region.
- 2016 Photographing Eugene's Iconic Landscapes
Lane Community College, Continuing Education Summer Term
Landscape photography course designed to capture and interpret the spirit of Eugene's emblematic landscapes at a new location each week. Covers technical and aesthetic components.

Occupation

- 2015 – Present Owner, Designer, Landscape Contractor
Perennial Patterns LLC (Eugene, OR, USA)
Landscape Design/Build Firm
www.perennialpatterns.design

Awards & Fellowships

- 2013, 2014 Berger Scholarships UO Landscape Architecture
- 2013 Graduate Teaching Fellowship UO Plants Sequence
- 2014 Merit Award American Society of Landscape Architects (ASLA) Oregon Chapter; General Design Award

Conference Presentations

- 2015 Conference Speaker Marion D. Ross Chapter Society of Architectural Historians; "10 Principles of PNW Landscape Architecture: How Authenticity is the New Regional Commodity"