

Emily Beatty

Curriculum Vitae

ebeatty3@uoregon.edu • (443) 414-8293 • Eugene, OR

EDUCATION

University of Oregon

PhD Student Political Science

Graduate Certificate in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies

Eugene, OR

2021-2026 (expected)

M.S. Political Science

June 2023

Thesis: "Compliant Creativity: How Citizens Contribute to Political Order"

Temple University

Philadelphia, PA

B.A. Honors in Political Science and Philosophy, magna cum laude

May 2020

Minor: Economics

Theses: "Restricted Citizenship of the Homeless Under the Liberal-Capitalist Tradition" and "Choice Feminism and the Patriarchal Hermeneutics of Sexual Relationships"

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Areas of Specialization: American Political Development (APD), Feminist Theory

Areas of Competency: American Political Thought (APT), U.S. Politics, Marxist and Anarchist Theory

Research Interests: Critical and Feminist Phenomenology, Transgender and Queer Studies, Political Resistance, Democratic Theory

SELECTED AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

University of Oregon

Graduate School Promising Scholar Award

2021

Lokey Graduate Science Award

2021

Temple University

Stefan T. Lefkowitz Memorial Scholarship

2019

PRESENTATIONS

Conference Presentations

[Upcoming] "Who Are We? Trans Subjectivity and Radical Democratic Praxis." The 2nd International Trans Studies Conference, Northwestern University, Chicago, IL, September 4-7, 2024.

[Upcoming] "Immanent Existence, Irreducible Experience." Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy (SPEP) 62nd Annual Meeting, Rochester Institute of Technology, Rochester, NY, September 26-28, 2024.

Lectures

"Political Subjectivity: Critical Perspectives in American History." Invited guest lecture for PS 308 American Political Thought, University of Oregon, OR, May 30, 2024.

“Gender, Embodiment, and Time.” Invited guest lecture for WGS 101 Intro to Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, University of Oregon, OR, June 4, 2024.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Oregon

Sole Instructor

[Upcoming] WGS 101: Intro to Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, Winter & Spring 2025

Discussion Section Instructor

PS 106: Power, Politics, and Inequality, Fall 2021

PS 111: Intro to Political Science, Fall & Winter 2022

PS 201: Intro to US Politics, Spring 2022, Winter 2023

[Upcoming] WGS 101: Intro to Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, Fall 2024

Course Grader

PS 308: US Political Thought, Spring 2024

PS 311: Sovereignty and Revolution, Spring 2023

SELECTED WORK EXPERIENCE

University of Oregon

Research Assistant

Summer 2024

- Worked under the guidance of faculty member Alison Gash to conduct research on undergraduate labor unionism in American universities and colleges
- Identified barriers to and resources for undergraduate labor unionism to establish itself since the beginning of the 21st century

Research Assistant

Summer 2022

- Collaborated with faculty member Daniel Tichenor to conduct research on American anti-immigration policies and federal immigration studies of the early 20th century
- Identified primary discursive themes used by anti-immigration advocates

SERVICE

American Federation of Teachers – Oregon (AFT-OR)

June 2023 – Present

Vice President at Large

Graduate Teaching Fellows Federation (AFT Local 3544)

June 2022 – June 2024

Vice President of External Relations

Graduate Council (Political Science Department)

September 2022 – June 2023

REFERENCES

Anita Chari

Associate Professor of Political Science

University of Oregon

anitac@uoregon.edu

Bonnie Mann

Professor of Philosophy

University of Oregon

bmann@uoregon.edu

Joe Lowndes

Professor of Political Science

University of Oregon

lowndes@uoregon.edu

Scott Ritner

Lecturer in Political Science

University of Colorado Boulder

scott.ritner@colorado.edu