Public Sociology and Community Service (1990-):

Policy advisor, Eugene Mayor Kitty Piercy, 2004-present. I serve as a member of the Mayor's policy advisory group, evaluating city trends and performance, and developing policy initiatives in areas including: economic development, social justice and equity policies (for example community standards in enterprise zones, homeless support initiatives, affordable housing), regional planning, land use and transportation, downtown development, environmental protection and sustainability, public participation and involvement processes, and related areas.

Co-Chair, City of Eugene West Broadway Advisory Committee, 2007. Coordinated a four month study and public participation process of downtown Eugene redevelopment options. Co-authored committee's Final Report (130 pages), presented at a public forum to Eugene City Council and published by Eugene Planning and Development Department.

Consulting. I have been a consultant to the City of Eugene Planning and Development Department on downtown revitalization issues (including making presentations, evaluating proposals, serving as a consultant to Eugene Redevelopment Advisory Committee). I have also done consulting with two Eugene city councilors, non-profits and civic groups, on topics including downtown planning and revitalization, economic development and sustainability initiatives and related areas. (groups include: Eugene Sustainable Business Initiative leaders, downtown business owners, neighborhood leaders, Citizens for Public Accountability, Eugene Area Chamber of Commerce).

Media Interviews. I have provided numerous media interviews and have been quoted frequently in local and state print and broadcast media on topics of urban development and land use planning, environmental policy, citizen involvement, and sustainability (including Register-Guard, Eugene Weekly, The Business Weekly, The Oregonian, The Other Paper, KEZI, KVAL, KLCC, KUGN, KOPT).

Board of Directors, Friends of Eugene, 1996-2006

President, Friends of Eugene, 1997-1999. Chaired the Board of a nonprofit community organization. Provided testimony and consultation to public agencies and elected officials (including the city manager, City Council members, Eugene Planning Commission, EWEB Board) on issues of growth management, land use, economic development, city and county planning, and environmental policies.

Member, Eugene Committee for Greater Downtown Visioning, advisory committee appointed by Eugene city council and mayor to create a long-range strategic plan for downtown revitalization, 1999-2000.
